

REACHING THE UNREACHED

with Rob Hoskins - OneHope

A MISSIONS MINDSET

- Missions should be a priority in churches, and pastors should actively promote and participate in mission efforts.
- Digital missions have become increasingly important and effective, especially in reaching children and young people.
- The local church plays a crucial role in missions, and collaboration with other churches and organizations is essential.
- There is an urgent need to reach the unreached and share the Word of God with those who have never heard of Jesus.
- The current and next generations have the opportunity to make a significant impact in global missions and reach billions of other children and young people.
- OneHope's biblical literacy program has reached over 2 billion children with the Word of God since 1987 and is available in over 148 languages and 64 countries.
- One Hope utilizes print, film, storytelling, and digital resources.

"The reality of the Great Commission doesn't have to be the dream of a future generation. It can be the reality of ours." - Rob Hoskins

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Keep growing to reach your full potential by asking yourself and your team these questions:

A MISSIONS MINDSET

- 1. Do you have a personal love for missions? What did you learn from this episode about God's heart for missions?

- 2. Who has gone before you as a leader and paved the way for you? Like Rob honored his parents, share some honoring thoughts about the people who paved the way for you.

- 3. What did you learn about the spread of Christianity throughout the world? Have you gained hope about the spread of the Gospel?

- 4. Where are some opportunities in your life or your church, that you could go more "all in" with missions?
